Said In Cypress

That it was not our pleasure to see the summer theatre's staging of "The heiress" in Tustin. We understand from reading neighboring exchanges that this dramatization reached a new high for summer stock. We did get to see lovely Brenda Joyce, however, in the thriller - diller "Mr. and Mrs. North," which you can still catch at Holiday stage this week. We heard from our Alpha Iota sorority sisters who accompanied us that despite the "chiller," they arrived home safe and sound. The only other three bodies they knew about were their own, as they tumbled out of the car after the midnight ride into L. A.

That Fred and Mrs. Walley are revelling in the joy of driving a brand new Dodge.

That outside of Skippy, the dog's burning a large hole in the couch, and Horace using one of Val's best pieces of Danish linen for every day, nothing untoward hoppened at the McKinzie home before the return of the family from a visit to Skokie, Indiana.

That we never saw a "swear box" until Tuesday, and then we saw two. No, we weren't seeing double. Leona showed us hers which she received for her birthday, and Rose Marie Watte had also acquired one over in Los Alamitos. And both of them were heavy. Quite an ambitious program these two gals have undertaken in their respective towns!

That you may notice the classified this week in which the return of a black cocker pup is sought. It seems "Susie" was left with the Ray Randall's over at 8331 Gay street while her masters had themselves a vacation. Except "Susie" apparently did not approve, because she disappeared. Her tag gives a street address and telephone number, unless she's lost her collar. Here, Susie! Give yourself up for your owner's sake.

That sooner or later, we find out all these 'helping hands' that are extended around Cypress. We didn't known until lately, when a VFW member expressed that organization's gratitude, that the Rev. W. D. Howard saw the predicament the VFW fireworks stand was in when they were all set up — but without electricity. Mr. Howard offered to let them stretch a wire to his house and that solved their problem.

Brenda Joyce In Mystery Comedy At Holiday Stage

Screen star Brenda Joyce is appearing in person this week in the Holiday Stage offering at Tustin, "Mr. and Mrs. North." The mystery-comedy, which in its radio adaptation has delighted millions, features Miss Joyce, John Alvin and Peter Adams. Miss Joyce, wha has starred in

BRENDA JOYCE

20th Centuy-Fox and Universal films, makes her summer stock debut as the scatterbrained young wife who chatters herself and her exasperated husband, played by John Alvin, practically into the electric chair and out again. The Norths are two likeable and unsuspecting people who never killed anybody, but whose apartment, according to the Police Lieutenant, Peter Adams, harbors an unreasonable number of corpses.

Scheduled to follow this week's run of "Mr. and Mrs. North" is the delightful Western comedy, "Green Grow the Lilacs," starring Oliver Cliff as Curly, the singing cowboy; Mary Finney as the wise Aunt Eller; and Janet Hamer, petite singing star of "Song of Norway," as Laurie, Curly's sweetheart. The large supporting cast of 20 includes John Alvin as the villain and June Lewis and Ado Annie.

Janet Hamer went directly from her first motion picture assignment in "Sensations of 1945" into the ingenue role of Sigrid in "Song of Norway." She stayed with the hit musical play, after its successful production on the West Coast, during its two-year run on Broadway. Television commitments will be fulfilled after her appearance next week at the Tustin strawhatter.

"Green Grow the Lilacs" is the heartwarming story of Curly and his sweetheart Laurie. Ado Annie, frivolous gal of the countryside, and her boyfriend, the peddler, add comedy to the delightful tale. American folk dances and songs enliven the action which spans several episodes laid in a variety of settings. An ambitious undertaking, "Green Grow the Lilacs" is excellent summer fare for theatre lovers.

REPAINT JOB ON LINCOLN STOP SIGNS IS CHAMBER AIM

Interested especially in the safeguarding of pedestrians from the hazards of heavy traffic on a state highway through the center of town, members of the chamber of commerce reviewed Cypress' traffic needs in their meeting Monday evening.

President Richard Hathcock introduced the subject by stating townspeople have expressed fear in crossing the busy intersection, being uncertain as to whether or not stops on Lincoln would actually be made by drivers of automobiles and trucks. It was felt that a decided need was realized last year when the four-way stops were installed at the busy corner, and the question now is whether the town should be content with this traffic control, or should recognize the increase in cross-county and foot traffic to request a more adequate signal, such as a blinking light.

Discuss Stop Signal

A suggestion was even made that a four-way electric stop signal, such as the ones at Lincoln and Stanton, and Carson and Norwalk should be petitioned for.

It was generally agreed that an immediate request should be made to the state to repaint the signs on the street which are practically obliterated. This fact, coupled with the problem of cars being parked so close to the signs on Lincoln as to cover them from view, are two of the reasons believed to be the cause of drivers failing to observe that they are approaching a boulevard stop.

Members agreed that requests should not be made for any new stop signs along Lincoln until the north and south roads becomes more heavily traveled. In this connection, it was reported by the highway and roads committee that Supervisor Ralph McFadden had pledged his support in seeing to it that work is continued on extending Walker street southward toward seventh street into Long Beach. It is expected that the street will eventually lead to the ocean.

A previous request for a stop sign at the corner of Walker and Orange was denied by the county traffic division. The chamber of commerce secretary, Frank Noe, was counseled to repetition for a stop sign at this hazardous corner.

Report on P. E.

In the absence of the committee representing the local chamber on the county group commissioned to study the question of abandonment of the Pacific Electric passenger service, reports were given by members who attended the meeting in Garden Grove last week. To clarify a question in their minds the matter of approaching the subject as to whether or not other public carriers are interested in using the right - of - way to give this area proper passenger service was sought through proper channels. It was suggested that a letter might be written to the committee of the associated chambers and if deemed worthy, might reach attention of other transportation lines such as the Santa Fe.

Other items of business, such as the granting of FHA loans in this area, and the placing of the town's name marker east of Cypress were tabled pending more detailed information.

TRYON FROM CYPRESS IN JAPAN WITH ARMY

Robert Tryon, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Rogers, has been promoted to the grade of Private First Class. He is a member of Company C of the Eighth Engineer Battalion, part of the Eighth Army's occupation forces in Japan. He is a truck driver in the motor pool and at present is at Mount Fuji, where his company is undergoing summer manoeuvers.

The job of the engineers is to maintain good roads and highways over the ten prefectures of Central Honshu, now being occupied by the first calvary division.

Before enlisting in the army, Private First Class Tryon was employed at Harvey's trailer court, Cypress, and after discharge, he plans to enter the garage business.

August Fifth Next Low - Teen Dance At School

Rallying to the support of the low-teen group of the Cypress teen-canteen movement, parents have volunteered their services in offering to supply an adequate number of chaperones for the Friday evening gatherings.

Led by Mr. and Mrs. Horace P. McKinzie, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Garvin and Mr. and Mrs. Vic Konig who have pledged their cooperation, other interested parents have promised to help.

With the volunteer aid of the auxiliary to the Cypress VFW post no. 9847 for both high-teens and low-teens, it is expected that the young people will not be asked to forego this weekly recreational program.

Any additional help from interested persons would be appreciated.

Revival Services Start Sunday At Baptist Church

Next Sunday will mark the beginning of a two-week long old-fashioned revival at the Baptist church here, corner of Watson and camp streets. All the churches of the southern Baptist association are carrying on similar meetings during this period.

An invitation is extended to the young people, particularly, to join with the choir in the preparation of special music, to include trios and quartets.

Singing will be under the direction of Bob Gillis, and the Reverend Mr. Buckner will preach at the services.

The public is cordially invited to attend the old-fashioned bible preaching services every evening, except Saturday, at 7:30 o'clock.

VFW Auxiliary Invites Public Benefit Picnic

To raise money for a fund for cancer research which the VFW auxiliary has inaugurated, a picnic is being planned for Sunday, August seventh. To be held in the yard of the Tom Demiris home at 8181 Gay street, the public is promised that they will be served a meal with no limit on quantity for a reasonable sum.

Serving will be from 1 to 2 p. m., with games and entertainment provided for amusement. Mrs. Demiris is chairman in charge of picnic arrangements.

JUNIOR BASEBALL TOURNEY, ANAHEIM

Continuing the junior baseball tournament started four years ago, the Anaheim post of the American Legion announces the opening date this year as Monday, August first. The series will continue through most of the month.

There is no charge for the games, the purpose the founders of the event had in mind being to promote baseball among boys under 18 years of age and give them a chance to develop their skills. Teams from as far away as Santa Maria participate.

Games start at 7 p.m. each evening in La Palma park stadium and last one hour and 45 minutes.

Catholics Plan Ice Cream Social

Our Lady of Fatima society held its regular monthly business meeting in the home of Mrs. Pete Van Ruiten on Wednesday, who also acted as president in the absence of Mrs Frank Cardoza. The latter is enjoying a four months' visit to Portugal.

Final plans were made for the benefit ice cream social to be Sunday, August seventh, in the patio of the Van Ruiten home at 3750 Bloomfield road. Mrs. Frank Ferreria will share responsibility for the event, beginning at two o'clock, assisted by members from the society.

A desert course of ice cream, French pastry, coffee and ice tea were served following the meeting. Mrs. John Van Ruiten assisted the hostess.

COAST GRAIN IS TROUNCED BY MERCHANTS, 12 - 1

With the exception of a formal protest by the Coast Grain team in the second inning, the Cypress Merchants had no difficulty in winning a 12 to 1 tilt last week in an NSA league tussle.

Cypress was leading only 1 to 0 in the second when the Norwalk team was at bat. The umpire reportedly called time, but Cypress pitcher Jimmy didn't hear him. Wright pitched, the batter hit a home run and brought two men in. Norwalk insisted time was not called and recorded an official protest.

Since the umpire called time himself, it is not believed the protest will be valid.

KIWANIS ORGANIZERS LAY PRIMARY PLANS

Ten Cypress men interested in organizing a Kiwanis club for this city met Tuesday evening with a sponsoring committee from the Buena Park group.

Purpose of the meeting was to acquaint everyone with the rules of the Kiwanis International concerning the procedures and qualifications required for membership in the Kiwanis.

The local group was organized into a classification committee, which will compile a list of Cypress businessmen and classify them according to a form put out by the International. Those falling under the proper classifications will be contacted for membership.

It was erroneously stated in the press last week that 25 men from Cypress had been contacted for membership. Frank Noe, president of the Buena Park club, wished to clarify this point, and emphasized that no one will be contacted for membership until the classification committee completes its work.

Persons interested in the new movement should contact Russel Flynn for further information.

ANY VETERANS WITH PROBLEMS ARE ASKED TO CONTACT V.F.W.

Since recent publicity releases from Veterans Administration headquarters have indicated that some veterans do not feel they are getting benefits due them under the various aid plans, Commander H. J. G. (Happy) Kreissler, of the Cypress Post no. 9847, has invited any local veteran with a problem to contact him, or attend VFW meetings each second and fourth Thursday of the month at the local post.

"Much more can be done for the individual through a strong organization, than he can accomplish alone," is Kreissler's reasoning, "and one of our primary aims is to help Cypress veterans."

BUS LINE PLANNED FOR THIS AREA

Tentative plans are being made to have D. K. Hutchinson, Bell, come to speak to the residents of Cypress to explain his plans for a new bus system that is to come into the Cypress area and surrounding territories.

Acording to a talk Hutchinson gave to the Buena Park Businessmen's group, the line will will give service from Orange county towns to Los Angeles, Long Beach points east and the beaches.

New and modern busses, the latest in production, will be used and plans tentatively call for about 18 different routes.

Efforts are being made to contact the Garden Grove, Los Alamitos, and Stanton Chamber of commerce to invite them to a meeting if it is held in Cypress.

Watch for an announcement in the next issue of the Enterprise.

SCHOOL LETS FENCE CONTRACT

Sullivan, of Anaheim, was awarded the contract to fence the school yard. The ground is being leveled and watered in order to pack and settle.

The fencing will be placed on the local school grounds the first week in August as soon as the company finishes its job for the Orange county fair at its new site.

At its meeting Monday evening, troop No. 76 of the Cypress boy scouts, decided to disband for the month of August.

By September fifth, the date set for the next meeting, it is hoped that additional information will be forthcoming from the national organization. There will be three groups to be maintained, the cub scouts, boy scouts and senior scouts. A scoutmaster and other adult leaders will be needed. The group has been under the direction of the VFW's C. W. Biggs, scoutmaster, John Sutphin, assistant scoutmaster, and the citizen's committee.

OPEN SECOND RADIO STATION IN COUNTY

Orange county's second radio station KTED at Laguna Beach (1520 on the dial) has started operations, it was announced by Tom E. Danson of Laguna Beach, owner. It is the only station on the coast "from Long Beach to San Diego," Dawson said.

Merchants throughout the immediate area were contacted and the cooperation shown was gratifying, acording to representatives, of the organization.

Announce Firms To Occupy New Building Soon

A. E. Arnold, owner of the recently completed four-unit store building on Lincoln avenue, disclosed the information this week that definite arrangements are being made for tenancy. Cypress cleaners and dyers, operated by Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Dixon, will move Saturday into the first unit just next door to their present location. E. C. Corby, barber, is expected to move into the far building at the end.

Plans call for a remodeling of the building vacated, so that the M & H Market can expand and occupy all of the space in the older structure. The front will also be modernized for a more attractive appearance.

Arnold stated that plans may go forward soon to move the post office into the second room, if technical difficulties are eliminated.

Terms of the suit between the former owner of the Cypress cleaners, W. T. Reed, and the owner of the building were settled satisfactorily out of court.

Vacation Trip Home To Iowa

Leaving for Story City, Iowa, Tuesday and a visit with his mother, Rick Townswick was accompanied by James Prowse and Frank Winters. Prowse, who makes his home in Cpress at 5421 Camp street with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Bischof, expects to spend about two months visiting in Plymouth, Indiana.

Rick's watch repair shop will be open as usual during his absence. Forrest "Frosty" Lowrey will substitute for Townswick while he is away.

FORMER RESIDENTS BUILD NEW HOME

H. H. Ihnen, Jr., and his father, H. H. Ihnen, Sr., are constructing a new 2 bedroom redwood ranch-style home on property recently purchased at 5671 Lincoln avenue from James Preston. The structure will feature a breezeway and include a large garage, and will be the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ihnen who will move here from 1008 East Center street in Anaheim. The land purchased extends through to Danny avenue.

The two men recently completed a home of similar redwood construction at Magnolia and Lincoln for H. A. "Bud" Ihnen and his wife.

LOCAL PEOPLE GO TO COMPANY PICNIC

Several Cypress employees of the Compress Gas and Cylinder company attended their picnic at Pop's Willow Lake last week.

Included in the day's entertainment were horse shoes, boating, swimming and other things. Softball games between departments were played with Derril Carden and Keith Giles of Cypress playing on the Acetyline team, which lost the playoff game to the Office group, 14-9.

MYSTERIOUS DISEASE HITS SEVERAL IN CYPRESS AREA

In an exclusive telephone interview with Dr. Edw. Lee Russell, county health officer in Santa Ana Thursday morning, it was learned that the malady which has been striking at local residents is of such a baffling nature that he has been forced to call the state for aid in diagnosis.

Due to arrive in Orange county is Miss Florence Ames, investigator from the office of Dr. A. C. Hollister, chief of staff of the bureau of acute communicable diseases. Miss Ames was assigned here in 1924 during the terrible typhoid epidemic.

The facilities of the highly specialized virus laboratory in Berkeley will be at the disposal of authorities conducting the investigation. According to the information received, basis of the illness is dificult to trace since none of the victims had a common food supply, and if water were the source, there would be more cases reported.

The Cypress residents most seriously affected are Ted J. Boyd, Charles Grable, and the newest victim, Mrs. Ralph Ellsworth. Four men and Mrs. Ellsworth have been reported, with no new cases occuring in the 24-hour period prior to information received Thursday morning.

Merchants Meet Norwalk Tonight; Girls, Buena Park

With only one loss against them in two rounds of NSA softball play, the Cypress Merchants will continue their quest for the leadership of the league when they meet the Norwalk Merchants tonight on the Norwalk diamond.

Devilettes play twice

The Devilettes will play at the Buena Park Recreation Park tonight at 8 when they tangle with the Buena Park Kittens. The Kittens have beaten the local team twice this season.

Tuesday night, the Devilettes will meet Norwalk on the Cypress Elementary school diamond at 7:30. The local girls have split two games with Norwalk, one a 6 to 4 victory for the Devilettes, and the other a 6 to 2 loss, when the two teams played at Norwalk.

NAZARENE GIRLS LEAVE FOR CAMP

Leaving at the early hour of three o'clock in the morning, five girls from the young people's group of the Church of the Nazarene, went to the mountains near Idyllwild on Monday. They were accompanied by the Reverend W. D. Howard, who will be an instructor in one of the four courses being offered at the week-long camp and institute, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim McCoy.

On the pretext of a send-off party Friday night for the girls leaving for camp, the young people used the occasion to fete Mr. and Mrs. Howard on the occasion of their birthdays. A beautiful electric coffeemaker was presented to the surprised couple, a gift of the host group.

Attending the camp and institute are Elizabeth Van Hunnick, Gayle McCoy, Nancy Allen, Louanne Johnson and Betty Knight.

The following week Mrs. Bob Stearns and Mrs. Margaret Ferguson will supervise a group of younger girls at a similar encampment, at the same location.

TWO V.F.W. MEMBERS TREAT WHOLE CLUB

The members of VFW Post No. 9847 now realize that kindness is the best policy — at least last Friday night it was.

At a recent meeting, a nominal sum of money was voted to Carl Markel and Bob O'Leary for the many hours they put in making the VFW - sponsored fireworks stand a success.

Markel and O'Leary accepted the money, then turned around and invited the entire membership to a party held at the club room Saturday night.

Dancing, cards and refreshments were the fare for the evening of entertainment.

RETAILERS CONDEMN WASTEFUL GOVERNMENT

A large retail association, which represents 7500 merchants in this country and Canada, has appointed a committee to oppose waste and extravagance in government, and to "arouse all retailers to the advantages of the Hoover Commission's report on reorganization of certain government agencies."

The resolution went on to say, "With a probable decline in Federal revenues, the terrific waste and extravagance of government are cause for serious alarm. Therefore, we call upon all members of our trade to insist upon a policy of rigid economy in government."

Retailers know that the kind of waste which characterizes government activity would be fatal if it were allowed to exist in their own business. Competition is getting tougher. Instead of shortages, we have surpluses in many lines. So the retailer must practice strict economy if he is to supply goods at an acceptable price, maintain his standards of service at a high level, and so hold his trade.

It is often argued that government cannot be operated on a business basis. That just doesn't hold water. There is no excuse for having half a dozen costly agencies when one would suffice to do a given job. There is no excuse for the size of the Federal payroll. And there is no excuse for the incredible amount of duplication of effort that is found throughout government in all its branches.

Every retailer — and every other businessman as well — should take part in the fight for efficient, economical government. Only public pressure can bring it about. No bureaucrat will economize unless he is forced to. Billions of our tax money can be saved — if we demand it. Only by cutting down inflated government can we save a free nation and ourselves from destruction by taxation.

Two of Czechoslovakia's top-ranking tennis players who defied orders from Prague to return home from Switzerland, say they'll come to the United States, instead. Why is it that so many individuals like these prefer to liver under America's "capitalistic slavery" rather than in the "free people's democracies" of Eastern Europe?

That's right. Worry never accomplished anything. Take our problem for example. We know for a fact that there are 23 people in town that are not using our service, but it doesn't worry us. We know that sooner or later these 23 will learn who the most economical plumbers are in Buena Park.

I RISE TO REMARK
by John Phillips

Expediency, says Mr. Webster, is a suitable means to an end, something devised in an emergency. This weekly letter has frequently expressed the idea that it is better to stick to principles. We can all agree, however, expediency is pointless if it is getting no results. Its only defense is the questionable one that the end may justify the means.

What do I mean by all that? Just this: if we roll up a debt of $252 billions (the present balance) which means $1764 for every man, woman and child in the nation, or about $7000 a family, and more for the families in the 22nd District; and if we send almost $100 billions (gift or loan, if you see any distinction) abroad; and if we build up our taxes to 24 percent for federal taxes and about 33 per cent for total taxes; and if we send our sons to war; and if we join an Atlantic Pact, then by all that is holy, we ought to know what we are doing it for. Expediency? Friendship? Peace? War? What?

I rise to remark that this is a question the people must eventually decide. The votes will be here, but the decisions will be in the grass roots. We say this is a Republic, and that we believe in it, enough to fight for it, if necessary. It is a government guaranteeing rights to individuals. So we finance the opposing theories of the nations in Europe. without us, those governments would fail. We prop them up. Expediency? Friendship?

The party in control in France recently announced in case of a war between the East and the West (a polite way of saying, between the U. S. and the U. S. S. R.), that nation would remain neutral. The socialist party of England made a similar announcement. The coal mining union of England went a little farther; it said in such an event it would not mine coal for a capitalistic country. That's us. So three quarters of the students in the universities of Great Britain get their educations at the expense of the U. S. taxpayers. We loaned Great Britain $3¾ billions, on a written agreement, interesting largely in what it did not say, for which reason I voted against it. A great part of the money was used for living expenses, not to rebuild her economy. Article IX pledged the UK not to set up import quotas which would discriminate against us. The socialistic government asks to be released. That Article was intended to stop the prewar policy of cartels and concessions. Article VIII was a promise to eliminate the sterling bloc and to make sterling convertible. That pledge was cancelled without having been put into effect. Common blood and cultural relationships have not kept the British papers from blaming the present crisis on the United States.

Have we made friends in Europe? We have a great responsibility for the loss of the Orient to Russia. We have tried to buy friendship. Our foreign policy has been one of expendiency. Suppose we had sent a few extension service workers, some practical farmers, some modern farm equipment, suitable for the areas in which it would be used, instead of all that money. Suppose, instead of building roads in big cities, we taught the people of the Orient how to improve their rural living standards. Not much money; just interest, and help.

If socialistic ideas, and central power, and dictatorship, are so good, why not have them here? If they are not good, why support them abroad? If these ideas are bankrupting England, why pick up the checks? If lend-lease took us into W. W. II, is W. W. III coming up with the Atlantic Pact?

If expediency is the reason, then shouldn't we have something to show for it, after so long, except a $252 billions debt, and a 33 per cent tax rate?

TO SELECT COUNTY QUEEN CANDIDATE

The approximately 25 cities and communities of Orange county are each being invited to select a candidate to compete in the Beauty Contest to be staged at the Fair Grounds on the opening day of the 1949 Orange County Fair, August 18, for the selection of the 1949 Queen of the fair.

Chambers of Commerce or similar civic organizations in each city or community are being asked to cooperate, along with the local newspapers and radio stations in the preliminary elimination contests.

W. H. Gallienne of Huntington Beach, secretary of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Orange county, who is chairman of the Entertainment committee for 1949 Orange County Fair, is handling the details of the queen contests.

Single girls between the ages of 16 and 22 years will be eligible to enter the queen contest. Any girl who meets these qualifications may compete by simply filling out an entry blank, available at all local chambers of commerce offices and agreeing to appear for the preliminary elimination contest to be staged in her home town or community and at the final contest on the open day of the fair.

The selected queen and her court will be guests of honor during the four days of the fair, appearing at several social functions and will receive wide publicity throughout Southern California.

BUENA PARK FAIR GOING FULL BLAST

The long-heralded Community Summer Fair is a reality in Buena Park today as the music of the merry-go-round calliope and the voices of barkers sound the opening of the celebration. Sponsored by the Business Men's Division of the Buena Park Chamber of Commerce, the affair is designed to bring a program of fun and festivity to town when the community usually swelters in the doldrums of summer heat.

Service clubs, veterans organizations and church groups have joined with the business firms in making the midway an impressive and attractive sight.

Principle drawing card among the commercial concessions will be the new car dealers' section. Salesmen will be present to explain the latest features on their cars, as well as giving demonstrations in some cases.

Another booth will demonstrate television sets for visitors to the fair. Two sets are expected to be demonstrated.

Civic organizations have turned out en masse, including several booths with games offering hams and other types of food as prizes, and still others will have food and drink concessions.

Twenty-odd exhibitors and four carnival rides crowd the normally barren lots from which they have magically sprung and offer plenty to entertain the visitors. Entertainment will be offered in the evenings free of charge on Friday and Saturday.

CYPRESS VFW HAS HELPED IN CIVIC ACTIVITIES

In one short year, the Cypress VFW post no 9847 has successfully pursued its goal of working for the betterment of its community and fellow veterans.

The group's activities begin with the Cypress White Gold day shortly after the local post's founding. The organization was rewarded in its hard work in building an elaborate float for the White Gold parade. The post won first prize for the best-decorated car.

Took Over Boy Scouts

When the Boy Scout troop no. 76 was in danger of being discontinued because of a lack of sponsorship, aid in the form of committeemen to help the boys and money was donated by the VFW. Up to the present time, approximately $175 has been given to the Boy Scouts to buy much-needed equipment and to boost the boys along in other ways.

Work for Stop Signs

Cooperating with the Cypress Chamber of commerce and the Enterprise, the VFW wrote letters to county officials stressing the need for stop signs at the corner of Lincoln and Walker avenues. It wasn't long before before that civic problem was solved.

Helped in Hospitals

The VFW Auxiliary was called in to help their male partners in the next venture undertaken. Groups of members packed into cars and traveled to the Sawtelle and Brentwood hospitals to give parties for the disabled veteran comrades who were confined there.

Again, coming to the aid of a fellow veteran, a benefit dance was staged to raise money for a Cypress man who was sent to the hospital for an emergency operation. The money was badly needed because the victim was in danger of losing his life if aid was not forthcoming.

When the Fourth of July rolled around, the Cypress VFW members realized the opportunity for organizations to raise money by selling fireworks. A committee was organized and sent to county officials to plead for the resumption of issuing firework sales permits in Orange county. The permits were issued.

Working for Building

It is the aim of the VFW in Cypress to be able to construct a building to house their clubroom — one which will be an attractive addition to the community. In order to accomplish this goal, campaigns to raise money for the building fund have been instituted, but with always one thing in mind — do not accept any money for which the donor does not receive something in return.

Following this policy, a television set was given away for donations for tickets, an enjoyable venture which was climaxed by a party at which a free movie and refreshments were given to community members.

Advertising has been sold, always with the idea that the merchant buying the advertising would benefit by his investment. Besides two large "spreads" in the Enterprise, card tables with advertising on the top were made by the post. These tables are available for use by any responsible organization in the community at any time.

Finally the VFW sponsors a get-together every Friday night at its clubroom, for the benefit of all members and their friends. Entertainment and refreshments are provided by the hosts at each of these weekly gatherings.

Soldier Overseas Protests Plight Of Children

Recently Mrs. Robert Cornett, Sr. of 65 Homewood street received a letter which had originally been sent to her sister-in-law, Mrs. O. R. Cornett of Fayetteville, Arkansas. The letter was from the Arkansas Cornetts' son, Jack, who is stationed with the 7th Infantry Division in Japan.

Excerpts from the interesting story on conditions in the occupied country follow:

"The Japanese are beginning to show signs of lack of food and warmth too, by now, and although they are much more acclimated and inured to the weather and surroundings than are we, many of their unfortunates are in desperate condition, and only manage to stay alive through charity of Allied Forces Personnel. It is about a group of these that I want to write to you today, to solicit your assistance and aid in caring for them. Especially would I like to call to the attention of our church at Fayetteville these conditions and ask each member and organization thereof to take some individual action to relieve their dire circumstances.

Abandoned Children

"As in every militarily occupied country which has been defeated in a major war, a new product of the occupation is found: illegitimate half-caste babies, children of soldiers and females of whatever country is in question. This is true in Japan today on Hokkaido, and particularly so in Sapporo, since a large concentration of troops is in this area. These children are in the main abandoned by their mothers shortly after birth and are cared for by local assistance, usually foreign missionaries of one faith and another. Their fathers are of course unknown. This is true in Sapporo. There are now about 40 babies and infants being looked after by a Convent of Nuns, and by the efforts of people of the occupation forces here around Sapporo.

"Chances for the survival of these children are very poor, however, since the Sisters of the Convent have virtually no funds save what they earn themselves by hand labor and by gardening, plus what is given them by Americans. Then too, even with money they are unable to obtain the supplies and clothing needed for the basic care of young children in Japan. They have no access to American or British sources since they can possess only Japanese Yen, and this is not permitted to be exchanged outside of Japan. As I say, Americans assist by gifts of food and clothing, but our supply is also limited this far from home, and if these infants are to live they must have continuous help.

"Their condition would be unbelievable to an American at home. Babies two years old are not yet walking, and weigh an average of only 15 or 18 pounds. They do not even attempt to talk until between 2½ and 3 years, and life is so serious and fraught with despair to them that I have never seen one smile or laugh! They are emaciated for lack of food, actually blue from cold, and scaly with dirt because no soap or warm water is obtainable for a bath. The sisters tell us that many of them have not been washed thoroughly since last summer when it was safe to use running water and kitchen soap or sand. Can you imagine babies with so little soap for washing that they are bathed only in the summer? And with such a meager diet that they cannot keep canned milk on their stomachs unless weakened four to one with water! Their keepers, the Sisters of the Convent, are mainly Canadian and German who have been here as missionaries since the early 1920's and their condition is almost as bad as that of their wards in lack of food, clothing, and fuel. They are a selfless, deeply religious group of women who have dedicated their lives to missionary and charitable works in extremely hard surroundings, and who are accomplishing a great deal with virtually nothing. But they need so much that to us are elementary requirement. The sister superior says: baby and infant clothing, Farina and other baby cereals, sugar, Karo syrup, soap for clothes and soap for bathing, flour, cornstarch, and especially milk, either powdered or canned. These things are all they ask, but I would like to see them have something a little more. Such as a few toys and candy and cod liver oil, and so forth that a child needs for growth of personality and body.

Appeal for Help

"Can you get the people of our church to make up packages of such things and send them? I would be happy to have them addressed to me for delivery, in the name of the donor, and I can assure everyone that nowhere could a person perform a more charitable or worthy action. I can also further say that the prayers of blessing from 40 children and their sister keepers for every person giving them these things goes up to heaven on every night of the year. Their gratitude for such gifts is so profound and so overflowing that it is embarrassing to be in the presence of such a great need. If you can help, you can never do more for the good of small children who in themselves are in no way responsible for even their own existence, much less their condition.

"Please tell people to use my address and to send as much as they want and to remember to wrap packages well to prevent loss in mailing. I will see to it that the orphans have every single gift, and that the persons donating are identified by name to them. Knowing your nature and the kindly charitable character of Americans and Baptists, I know we can count on your help.

With Love,
Your Son, Jack

The address of Jack Cornett is Headquarters, 7th Infantry Division, office of the Assistant Chief of Staff, G-1, APO 7, San Francisco, Calif.

PROOF OF BIRTH VITAL TO VETS

"When and where were you born, and can you prove it?"

For veterans, particularly those who served prior to World War II, this question has special importance, according to Ben Liebermann, Orange County Service Officer.

For example, he pointed out, pensions paid by the Federal Government for permanent and total disability not connected with the veteran's military service hinge to a large extent on the veteran's age. Under present law the pension increased automatically when the veteran reaches 65 to $72 per month.

Under legislation now pending the veteran would be automatically eligible for pension, without examination provided he meets the income limitation requirements, at age 65.

Filing of a claim for disability pension, or for an increase on the basis of age, requires proof of date of birth. This means either a copy of the birth certificate, or affidavits from persons in a position to swear to the pertinent facts. It is suggested that a copy of this document be secured and held in safe-keeping for any future need.

The passage of time always makes such proof harder to obtain, and delays may be costly to a veteran in need of the Government income to which he may be entitled.

APPLICATION FORMS FOR G.I. INSURANCE REFUNDS SOON

Application blanks for the $2-800,000,000 National Service Life Insurance special dividend to be paid to some 16,000,000 present and former policyholders will be available for veterans August 29, Carl R. Gray, Jr., Administrator of Veterans Affairs, announced yesterday.

Government Printing Office currently is running off 70,000,000 of the forms, advance samples of which were released to the press and radio yesterday by Mr. Gray. The forms will be available in every postoffice, V-A Office, and at veterans' service organizations beginning August 29, which is the earliest date the Government Printing Office can complete distribution of the huge order.

As official forms will not be available, any dividend applications received prior to August 29, V-A emphasized, will be discarded and no attempt made to process them.

Mr. Gray said that all the veteran needs to do is to obtain the application, which is a three-fold card containing all the instructions necessary to get the dividend, then fill it out and mail it to V-A. In event the veteran does not know the number of his insurance policy, the application can readily be identified by service number, rank and the exact name used during service with the armed forces.

HOSPITAL INSURANCE BILL SIGNED

Governor Warren has signed a bill which makes California the first state in the Nation to provide hospital insurance for workers covered by the unemployment insurance program.

Under the bill, approximately 3,000,000 wage earners in the State will be eligible to receive $8 a day toward their hospital bills for up to 12 days in any one year.

VETS ADVISED TO GET AUTHORITIVE COUNCIL ON AFFAIRS

Expert counsel can be just as important in the matter of veterans' rights and benefits as it is in matters of law, American Legion Adjutant David Aaron reminded veterans in Buena Park this week.

"Well-intentioned friends who have had individual dealings as veterans with some federal or state agency may be willing to give you pointers on how to short-cut some red tape or 'work some angle'," Aaron said, "but the safest policy is not to follow this advice until you have checked on it."

For one thing, he pointed out, individual cases differ so widely that no one set of rules can apply to more than a few veterans. For another, the maze of veterans' laws, policies, and regulations is often so complex that years of training and experience are necessary in dealing with them efficiently.

This training and experience are available to veterans and their dependents without charge at the Veterans' Service Center, Santa Ana, where information and assistance can be obtained in such fields as state home financing, state or federal educational assistance, National Service Life Insurance, compensation and pension claims, civil service preference, hospitalization and other medical care and a score of others.

MORE VETERANS ABLE TO USE HOME LOAN PROVISION OF G. I. BILL

More than 1,500,000 World War II Veterans have bought homes with the help of Loan Guarantys provided in the GI Bill, Veterans Administration announced today.

Noting that 27,412 new applications for home loan guarantys were received from lenders in June, VA said this number represented an increase of more than 40 percent over the low point reached in the first three months of this year.

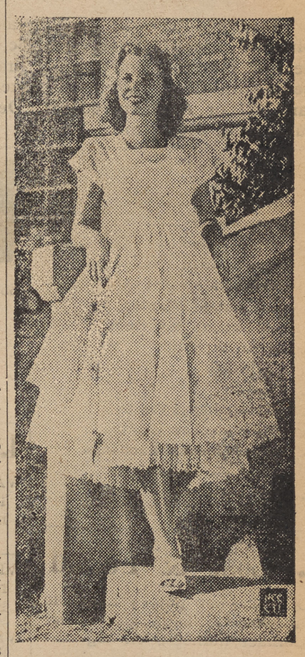

The sharp return in new applications followed a steady decline for a year and a half from the 50,000 rate per month in the fall of 1947. The peak was in September 1946 when almost 58,000 applications were received.

The interest rate on GI home loans cannot exceed four percent, and they may be made repayable over periods up to 25 years. VA guarantees the lender against loss for up to 50 percent of the amount loaned to the veteran, with a maximum guarantee of $4000.

VA said several factors apparently contributed to reversal of the loan downward trend in GI loans. One is the government secondary market for these loans, authorized last year, which has made additional funds available for GI lending.

Another is the growing investment problem facing lending agencies whose deposits have been mounting rapidly in recent months. Also, recent declines in bond yields and interest rates have encouraged many lenders to view four percent GI loans with more favor, VA said.

PETTICOAT FASHION!

Oh, miss, your petticoat is showing! But it's quite the fashion this summer, says pretty Janet Leigh, MGM star. She likes cotton petticoats in all colors and all styles, and she likes them showing! The frilly petticoat is topped by a sheer organdie frock that is crisp and cool.

STATE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO INSPECT COUNTY HIGHWAYS

State highways in Orange County will be inspected today Thursday, July 28, by the California State Chamber of Commerce's Southern Highway Committee, high ranking members of the State Highway Department, and members of the California State Highway Commission.

This announcement was made today by Howard L. Way, chairman of the State Chamber's So. California Highway committee. "Following the tour," Way said, "our Southern California Highway Committee will make State highway project construction recommendations for the 1950-51 (102nd) fiscal year budget."

The Associated Chambers of Commerce of Orange County and Long Beach Chamber will host members of the tour at a luncheon beginning at 12 p. m. at the Lafayette Hotel, Long Beach. Groups from Orange County and the city of Long Beach will present local State highway project recommendations at the luncheon.

SALVATION ARMY MAKES APPEAL FOR OLD FURNITURE

An urgent appeal for all kinds of discarded furniture is being made this week by the Salvation Army Social Service Center serving this area through the newly installed manager, Brigadier Fred Ohrn. He is asking the public to cooperate in this emergency by sending no-longer-needed furniture items to the center.

Red Shield trucks will call at homes or offices, Brigadier Ohrn said, to pick up discarded articles by telephoning Fullerton 377 or TOrrey 7-3256.

Due to a sudden drop in the amount of used furniture being received at the center, the supply for refurbishing is virtually depleted. In order to maintain the program of providing employment for needy persons, the center manager said, there must of necessity be an increase in the discarded furniture supply.

Mr. and Mrs. Shelton Flower, of Council Bluffs, Iowa, were visitors last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Flower. Shelton is the son of the Clarence Flowers, who operate the Buena Park Automatic Laundry service.

PITY THE POOR MAILMAN—Pretty Maureen O'Sullivan of Laguna Beach is shown with some of the 5000 Premium List booklets being mailed and distributed to prospective exhibitors at coming 1949 Orange County Fair being staged near Santa Ana, Aug. 18-21, inclusive. The booklets, which are being given free distribution, contain complete information on exhibits. More than $36,000 will be offered exhibitors in wide variety of classifications and a cordial invitation is being extended Southland residents to enter displays.
